

ABOUT ABLE AUSTRALIA

Established over 50 years ago, Able Australia is a diverse not-for-profit organisation offering a broad range of disability services for adults and community supports for seniors.

WHAT WE DO

Established over 50 years ago, Able Australia has grown from providing support to the deafblind community into an innovative and diverse organisation with a varied service offering.

Committed to our values of trust, respect, excellence and kindness, we strive to provide the best quality care to our clients.

Our passionate staff and volunteers help those we support to reach their full potential. We currently provide services in Melbourne, Tasmania, ACT and South East Queensland.

We offer:

- Supported independent living
- In-home support
- Community participation
- Deafblind services
- Day programs
- Community supports for seniors
- Support Coordination

DISABILITY SERVICES

With programs across Australia, we are a leading NDIS registered service provider. We offer:

Day Programs focusing on centre-based group activities

Community Participation supporting clients to partake in regular and varied activities that align with their goals and interests

In-home support/Supported Independent Living in your home or in one of ours

SUPPORT COORDINATION

Supporting NDIS participants to manage their packages, our support coordinators find the most appropriate services and providers.

DEAFBLIND SERVICES

With our heritage in supporting those with deafblindness, we are experts in the field. We offer:

Monthly recreation programs creating a safe and comfortable space for clients to have new experiences

Communication Guide program assisting clients in their day-to-day life

Digital literacy increasing connectedness and IT skills

SERVICES FOR SENIORS

Focused in the South East region of Queensland, we are an accredited Aged Care provider. We offer:

Community Transport delivering an accredited door-to-door service to the aged community and people living with a disability in Queensland

Community Support creating opportunities for clients to go on outings which encourage social engagement
