

SENIORS SHORT STORIES WRITING COMPETITION

We invite all members of the senior community to participate in this project by sharing their life stories. This competition is a way of recognising and valuing the experiences of seniors. This is an opportunity to impart knowledge and wisdom to younger generations.

Submissions now being accepted. Competition closes 31 May.

Selected stories will be published in our Senior's Short Stories book to be distributed to the authors and amongst the community.

Entries will go in the draw to win 1 of 20 $50 gift cards

All entries are to be emailed to jessy.byrnnes@ableaustralia.org.au

Terms and Conditions

1. The writing competition is open to all seniors aged 60 years and over or 50 years and over if identify as an Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander
2. Entry is Free
3. Photos can be included in your submission
4. Short Story Length Maximum 1000 words
5. Closing date is Midnight 31 May 2020 and no entries will be accepted after that date.

Any questions? Please contact Jessy at Able Australia on 5600 0733 or 0427 211 816